Let BBBSA Be Your Philanthropic Partner:

The violence taking place in communities too often involves youth as both the perpetrators and the victims. The bullying that we read about involves youth who feel isolated from their peers in a society racked by persistent unemployment and economic uncertainty.

As a member of Alpha Sigma Phi, you have the opportunity to lead your campus in providing children facing adversity with strong and enduring, professionally supported one-to-one relationships that change their lives for the better, forever.

Big Brothers Big Sisters has an agency near every Alpha Sigma Phi chapter, giving more than 4,279 undergraduates and 48,910 alumni the opportunity to have a positive influence in the lives of young men through this partnership.

Alpha Sigma Phi Members Can Help by:

- Becoming a Big Brother for a child in their areas
- Hosting a "Big for a Day" event on their university campuses
- Participating in a Bowl for Kids' Sake event
- Serving on the local Big Brothers Big Sisters' junior board and advisory committees
- Organizing fundraising activities around Greek Week, Homecoming, Parent's Weekends, etc.
