A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

H-OFFICERS

Brothers of Delta Zeta,

Our beloved Delta Zeta Chapter has reached heights that it has not seen since its founding at UNC Charlotte in 1979. We have established a fully functioning and effective standards board, holding our men to a standard of honorable governance, emblematic of the seven points taught through pledgship. Financially, we are thriving more than ever with all debts paid, along with implementing our first notable savings account, in hopes to further secure our future. Recruitment has seen an influx in numbers in the last few years, and we now have guys coming to our school having heard of Alpha Sig. New member education strives to strengthen the characters of all new members, by teaching the history of Alpha Sigma Phi as well as the values and principles we were all taught from day one. This educational process will not only carry the new members to a greater success in the Fraternity, but also serve as a backbone of character all throughout life. Community outreach towards philanthropy and service has expanded dramatically, putting us in constant competition with other fraternities on campus. Through all of this, we continuously make strides to reach out to our alumni. We hope each alumnus always feels welcome and the Delta Zeta Chapter continues to value the meaning of "Brother for life."

All of these achievements were later recognized this past summer, when Delta Zeta was awarded its first Alpha Kappa Pi Gold Cup in a decade. What a moment that was for our chapter. Our relentless efforts and hard work had paid off, and though we reached our goal, there is always something to improve upon.

Recently, we have been able to set precedents for alumni relations and alumni event logistics that we hope to carry on after we are gone. But we still need to find, and come in contact with, some of our long lost brothers that many have not seen in years.

Many men came into this fraternity seeing the diamond in the rough, with ambition and camaraderie that strived to excel Delta Zeta to be not only the most renown amongst our fellow fraternities at UNCC, but recognized as one of the greats in our national spectrum. It gives me immense satisfaction to look back as a senior, to see the accomplishments and obstacles our brothers have come together to earn and overcome. Thank you Alpha Sigma Phi for the experience of a lifetime.

Brothers of Delta Zeta,

“to better the man, through the creation and perpetuation of brotherhood...”

That line should sound familiar to you, because it’s the purpose of our fraternity. While there’s no doubt we’ve had a great deal of success in accomplishing this task, most of us would agree that we can do a better job with the “perpetuation” aspect of that purpose.

In an effort to help this cause, some local alumni, with the help of the Chapter’s alumni director, Phil Toupin, founded Delta Zeta’s first nationally-recognized alumni association in September of this year. The alumni association has two primary objectives: The first is to create an organization that will “perpetuate brotherhood” among the alumni, by facilitating better communication and increased interaction. The second, is to strengthen the connection between the active chapter and its alumni nationwide.

I’ve already mentioned Phil’s contributions, but I’d like to acknowledge the other officers of the alumni association, and thank them for their hard work over the past several months, in getting this organization off the ground.

Spencer Boone, Vice President
Evan Lambeth, Treasurer
David Lorenzen, Secretary
Ethan Grimes, Brotherhood Director

The alumni association is still in its infancy, so we need brothers to join and help shape its future. Right now, all you need to do to become a member of the alumni association is be an alumnus of the Delta Zeta Chapter in good standing, and pay dues of only $20 annually. The chief benefits of membership are voting privileges (we will have protocols in place to accommodate those of you who will not be able to physically attend meetings) and member-only pricing for the various social and brotherhood events that we’ll be organizing throughout the year, including Pig Pickin’.

Since the association is so new, this will be an exciting time to be a part of it, and I’m hoping that you’ll be up to the task. I know the current members of the association and I are looking forward to growing our numbers, and really reinforcing a strong alumni network. If you’d like to become a member, or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me at tedgraca@gmail.com. Rush Alpha Sig (Alumni Association)!
